A special gift from you to your Clients

Thirty three years ago a group of forty five of the best wine makers in South Africa got together to form the Cape Wine Makers Guild.

Subsequently each year the individual wine makers choose one or two of their very best barrels and sell these at the annual Cape Winemakers Guild auction. Wine buyers and connoisseurs from around the World gather for this auction to bid on these special wines that are available nowhere else.

Over the last five years Grootbos has attended these auctions and purchased a substantial quantity of these extraordinary wines. We would like to offer these unique wines to you to present to your clients on arrival at Grootbos as an extraordinary gift. For 200 (USD/EURO/POUND) on arrival your clients will receive one of these special wines as a gift from you, their operator.

The wine sommelier will greet them and ask them what wine they would like to drink with dinner. The guest will then be led into the maturation cellar where they can choose from any one of these extraordinary wines. The chosen wine will then be decanted in front of the client in order that it can breathe in preparation for drinking later that evening at dinner.

Before dinner the label will be carefully steamed off the bottle, be glued onto a beautiful piece of paper onto which we will write a note mentioning that the wine is a gift from you, their tour operator. This note will then be rolled up with a ribbon and placed next to the wine your client will be enjoying that evening.

We believe that this gift will also provide a great introduction for your guest to their wine experience at Grootbos and combines well with a wine tour during their stay.
