MAKUWA SAFARI LODGE

Makuwa Safari Lodge is a bushveld retreat located in the Greater Kruger area on a private game reserve near Orpen Gate of Kruger National Park. The bush bustles with buffalo, plains game and bird activity. Idyllic accommodation in whitewashed houses with thatched roofs and broad patios offers sweeping views of the wilderness and the distant Drakensberg Mountains. Manicured lawns dotted with acacia, marula and fig trees surround the lodge, while all around the property untouched bushveld provides a perfect habitat for a wealth of predators, mammals and birdlife.

The central communal area is set up for a simple yet stylish dining experience: a casual bar area and patio with a dining table provide the perfect setting for a rustic farm-to-table meal. Makuwa can cater for special occasions on its lawns, or around the boma that sits under massive trees. The rooms have been carefully constructed to ensure a light, airy feel - with plenty of open spaces and airflow throughout. The whitewashed brick walls and thatched roofs ensure respite from the heat during the searing temperatures of the summer months in Kruger. The décor is minimalist and simple, with the finest white bed linen and towels complementing the monochromatic black and white tiles of the en suite bathrooms in each room, where the bold reds of Persian carpets add a touch of warmth. Glass sliding doors open onto a patio with expansive views across the lawns and beyond to the neighbouring game reserves.

We look forward to welcoming you, your friends and family to Makuwa Safari Lodge - a modern country escape in the heart of the Kruger bushveld.

The average maximum temperature ranges from 24° Celsius in July to 31° Celsius in January, while the average minimum in July is 8.5° Celsius.

WILDLIFE

Mammals

The South African lowveld is home to some of the world's largest mammals: elephant, giraffe, hippo, buffalo and rhino are all resident in Kruger National Park. Game drives in KNP and the neighbouring Manyeleti Game Reserve offer unforgettable sightings of these large species, in addition to general wildlife such as zebra, impala, kudu, gnu, waterbuck, bushbuck, duiker and steenbok.

Predators

Following in the footsteps of the herbivorous mammals are the carnivorous species of the bushveld. Lion, leopard, hyena, cheetah, African wild dog, and the Nile crocodile are the more prominent large predators in the Kruger region, while smaller predators include jackal, mongoose, civet and genet.

Birdlife

The grounds of Makuwa Safari Lodge are home to a rich variety of avian delights. Waterbirds such as herons, storks, plovers, spoonbills and sandpipers are common along the edges of the dam, while kingfishers, orioles, robins, chats, larks, cisticolas and coucals are just some of the bushveld and woodland birds that can be seen. Birds of prey are seen and heard throughout the day.

Malaria

Guests are encouraged to consult their local doctor before travelling regarding anti-malarial medication. We highly recommend using an effective insect repellent.

WHAT TO PACK

- Towels and basic toiletries are provided in each bathroom.
- We recommend packing lightweight clothing in neutral colours with short sleeves, plus protection from the sun in the form of sunblock, a sunhat and sunglasses.
- In winter (May-September) a warm and windproof jacket, scarf and gloves are essential for early morning game drives.
- Bring binoculars, and a camera to record your wildlife sightings.
- The lodge has a small library of bird and wildlife books, but you should bring any books and games you need to keep yourself entertained.
